

Randall Vaughn
Kentucky Arts Council Board
Lexington, Ky.

Randall Vaughn, AIA, NCARB, is director of architecture at Gray Construction located in Lexington, Ky. With over 20 years of experience as a project architect, he has worked with the planning, design and construction of industrial, manufacturing, distribution, multi-family housing, education and commercial developments. Randall is adjunct faculty member at ITT Technical School in construction management.

He served two terms on the Lexington-Fayette Urban County Government Planning Commission and Board of Architectural Review. He currently serves on the Lexington Opera Society board, Governor's School for the Arts advisory committee, MLK State Commission, BCTCS Architecture Advisory Board, and is a member of the East Kentucky Chapter of the American Institute of Architects.

Randall, a 1991 alum of Leadership Kentucky, has also been active in ABL Graduate Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc., the United Way of the Bluegrass Board, EBCE program Fayette County Schools, Volunteers of America, YMCA Black Achiever Program, Bluegrass-Aspendale Teen Center and other youth oriented programs.

In addition to his community service endeavors, he has served on the board of the Bluegrass Trust for Historic Preservation and the Actors Guild in Lexington. Randall enjoys golfing, fishing, genealogy, visual arts, music, sculpture, woodworking, and writing.